TaKeTiNa the rhythmic voice

with Henning von Vangerow Whitsun 10.06. - 13.06.11.
at Fritz Perls Institute Hückeswagen

The rhythmic voice is the background for each rhythm. In India the voice prepares the percussionist's drumming. In Africa rhythmic voice and drumming have been used to send messages. In Brazil and Korea the voice gives energy to shamanistic drumming. In TaKeTiNa, developed by Reinhard Flatischler the voice is a bridge between rhythm and movement. The body becomes rhythm.

Henning von Vangerow advanced rhythm facilitator, Psychotherapist, Psychologist and former actor, is leading Taketina workshops since 20 years all over Europe and since 2 years in Brazil.

Workshopplace: European Academie, Fritz Perls Institute (FPI). The house is situated near the boarder of a big lake (near Cologne, Düsseldorf, Wuppertal). There is good vegetarian food.
